

RINGWOOD Local Realtor stands out

Gary Albrecht, a member of Cole Schotz's Real Estate Department, has been named one of "40 Under 40" by NJBIZ, the leading source of business news in New Jersey. Earlier this year, Albrecht was also selected for Real Estate New Jersey's "40 Under 40."

Albrecht has a diverse and national commercial real estate practice focused on the financing, acquisition, development and sales of commercial real estate, with a particular emphasis on retail leasing.

Albrecht has been recognized by his peers in numerous instances. In 2006, 2007 and 2008, he was named in New Jersey Monthly as one of New Jersey's rising stars in real estate transactions. In 2006 he was recognized by the New Jersey Law Journal as one of New Jersey's "40 Under 40."

Albrecht is a member of the Board of Directors of Bergen County's United Way. He is a participant in the inaugural class of Bergen LEADS, a leadership program.

He lives in Ringwood with his wife, Melissa and sons, Matthew and Luke. He is a graduate of Rutgers University, with high honors, and a magna cum laude graduate of the Seton Hall University School of Law.
